

may appoint from among the four Commissioners one who shall be known as "Police and Fire Commissioner", and who shall have under special charge the enforcement of all police regulations of said town and general supervision over the fire department thereof; One Commissioner to be known as "The Commissioner of Streets and Public Property", who shall have under his special charge the supervision of streets, sewers, alleys, public grounds and property of the town, and be charged with the duty of keeping them in a clean and sanitary condition and with the enforcement of all rules and regulations to these ends, and who shall also have under his special charge the supervision of all public improvements except as may be otherwise provided; One Commissioner to be known as "The Water and Light Commissioner", who shall have under his special charge, the construction, maintenance and operation of the water and electric lighting systems of said town and shall see to the enforcement of all rules and regulations with respect to said systems; One Commissioner, who shall be known as "The Commissioner of Finance and Revenue", who shall have under his special charge the enforcement of all laws for the assessment and collection of taxes of every kind and the collection of all revenues belonging to said town from whatever source the same be derived and who shall examine and keep informed as to the finances of said town.

643. At the first meeting of The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport in June of each year they shall set the amount of the salary to be paid during the year to the Mayor and each Commissioner, which salaries so set shall not exceed the sum of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) to the Mayor and Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) to each Commissioner, excepting whenever any Commissioner is designated as Treasurer of the Town he may be paid an additional sum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00). They shall have the power to designate and to employ by way of a retainer or otherwise an Attorney-at-Law to be their legal adviser or representative, and may contract with him as to his compensation and duties in their behalf. They may by order or ordinance define and prescribe the duties of the Clerk or the Bailiff and prescribe the amount of their respective salaries of compensation, as well as to fix the rate of wages or compensation of all other employees of said town. Without the special permission of the Legislature of Maryland, the authority of The Mayor and Commissioners to borrow money upon the faith and credit of the Municipality of Westernport shall be limited to funds for