

sale of said bonds, including legal expenses, shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of said bonds. Provided, however, that any balance of the proceeds of said bond issue not required for the purposes hereinbefore specified shall be applied to the redemption of said bonds.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That The City of Salisbury is hereby empowered to apply any surplus revenues of the water department and sewer department of the City to meet and pay the interest on said bonds so issued and outstanding, and to meet and pay the principal of said bonds as they shall severally become due from time to time. In any year that any of said bonds are outstanding, and any deficiency exists in the amount of the aforesaid surplus revenues available for the payment of the maturing principal and interest of said bonds, The City of Salisbury shall levy upon all the assessable property liable to taxation in the City at the regular tax levying period an amount sufficient to meet and pay the interest maturing on said bonds during any such year and to meet and pay the principal of said bonds maturing during any such year, which tax shall be levied and collected, and shall have the same priority rights, bear the same interest and penalties and in every respect be treated the same as other City taxes now are. Said amount so levied and collected shall be used for the payment of said interest and principal and for no other purpose whatsoever.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 27, 1953.
