

removal, and such removal shall only be after a hearing before The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport at a time fixed by them, should the person so charged request a hearing during said ten day period.

661E. Before The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport shall be liable for damages of any kind the person injured or someone in his behalf shall give the Mayor or the Town Clerk of Westernport notice in writing of such injury within thirty days after the same has been received, stating specifically in said notice when, where and how the injury occurred and the extent thereof. The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport shall never be liable on account of any damage or injury to person or property arising from or occasioned by any public street, highway or grounds, including accumulations of snow and ice on any public ~~work~~ WALK of the city unless the specific defect or the accumulation of snow and ice causing the damage or injury shall have been actually known to the Mayor or the Superintendent of the Streets by personal inspection for a period of at least twenty-four hours prior to the occurrence of the injury or damage, unless the attention of the Mayor or Superintendent of Streets shall have been called thereto by notice thereof in writing at least twenty-four hours prior to the occurrence of the injury or damage and proper diligence has not been used to rectify the defect or cause such as accumulations of snow or ice to be removed after actually known or called to the attention of the Mayor or Superintendent of Streets as aforesaid.

661F. All ordinances of the Town of Westernport not inconsistent with any of the powers and provisions of this Act heretofore passed and in effect shall be and remain in full force and power until repealed, changed or modified by The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport and that the present officers of the Town of Westernport shall continue to hold office as such officials after the expiration of their respective terms for which they were elected or appointed until their successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified as provided by this Act, exercising any and all of the powers, duties and privileges granted to The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport as a corporation or to any of its officials to the fullest extent as set forth in the Act. And all legal contracts, obligations, undertakings, debts, demands, rights and privileges for or against The Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport as heretofore existing shall remain for or against said municipi-