

vators of the peace of said town, and it shall be their duty to order the arrest of any person found breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet and order of said town, or violating any of the ordinances made by the commissioners for securing the safety of the property or lives of the inhabitants of said town, and shall have power to require any person so offending to give security to keep the peace, or in default thereof, may commit such person to the county jail for not more than forty-eight hours, and in addition thereto may for the commission of said offense impose a fine on such person of not more than five dollars; and such person in default of payment thereof may be committed to the county jail for a period of not more than five days. All fines, penalties and forfeitures under this sub-title, and not otherwise provided for, shall be recovered before a justice of the peace for said county in the name of the Commissioners, and applied to the benefit of said town; and in all such proceedings the bailiff shall have the same power to proceed in the same manner and have the same fees as constables, and for police duties shall be entitled to the same fees as constables, and all process shall be returnable before some justice of the peace, resident in said town.

322J. (400K). Before the first day of October, 1953, the Commissioners of Queen Anne shall provide and prepare an assessment book, with the assessment list arranged in alphabetical order in the names of all persons owning real or personal property within the corporate limits of the town of Queen Anne. The assessments on said property shall be in the amounts assessed on same as set forth on the assessment books of Queen Anne's and Talbot Counties in the office of the County Commissioners in Centreville and Easton; and said books shall be the basis for levying all taxes in said town.

322K. (400L). The Commissioners of Queen Anne before the first day of October in each year thereafter shall enter in the assessment book such transfers, abatements or new assessments as have been made on the assessment books of Queen Anne's County and Talbot County for the current year.

322L. (400M). The annual date of finality for tax purposes in the town of Queen Anne shall be the first day of October and within thirty days thereafter the Commissioners of Queen Anne shall make their levy for the general expenses of the town for the calendar year in which said levy is made.