

The said Treasurer in and about the collection of delinquent taxes, shall have all the powers and authority of a Collector of Taxes under the Code of Public General Laws; and should the said Treasurer deem it impracticable to sell personal property liable for taxes at the time and place aforesaid, then he may advertise and sell said personal property under the power and authority conferred upon Collectors of Taxes by Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws provided that the said Treasurer shall proceed with such sales as soon as possible after the third Monday in August, as named in this section.

The said Treasurer shall be entitled to a commission of three per centum on the amount of all sales made by him in pursuance of the provisions of this section to be computed and charged as part of the expenses of such sale; and he shall also be entitled to charge and receive a like commission on all taxes, interest and costs paid after the first day of April, in each and every year, and before the day of sale.

Property sold for taxes may be redeemed as provided by the Code of Public General Laws upon the payment of the taxes with interest, costs of advertising and actual expenses of sale, but no payment shall be required for attorney's fees.

This Act is intended to apply, and shall apply, to delinquent Town taxes for the year 1939, as well as to all such taxes for subsequent years. Thereafter, such taxes shall be certified to the County Tax Collector, as provided for in the Annotated Code, Article 81.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1953.

Approved March 9, 1953.
