SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That before the provisions of this Act shall become effective, The Mayor and Council of Hampstead shall cause a special election to be held on a date before January 1, 1954, to be fixed by it.

Not less than fifteen (15) days before said election, the said The Mayor and Council of Hampstead shall cause a notice thereof to be published twice in a newspaper published in Carroll County, Maryland, and shall post in at least three (3) public places within the present corporate limits of the Town of Hampstead and also in at least the same number of public places within the territory proposed by this Act to be annexed, a notice of said special election. Said advertisement and posted notices shall notify the residents of said territory and of the Town of Hampstead that there will be held on said day at a place designated therein at some convenient place in the Town of Hampstead between the hours of seven o'clock A. M. and seven o'clock P. M., an election to determine whether or not said town limits should be enlarged as described in this Act. The said The Mayor and Council of Hampstead shall provide a polling place, ballot boxes, booths and ballots for such election, the cost thereof to be paid by the said The Mayor and Council of Hampstead, which is hereby authorized to pay the same. The said ballots shall contain the words "For Enlarging the Town Limits" on one line and "Against Enlarging the Town Limits" on another line, with a square opposite each. Except as otherwise required by this Act, said election shall be conducted, as nearly as practicable in the same manner as election for municipal officers of the Town of Hampstead. The Mayor and Council of Hampstead shall appoint three (3) Judges and one (1) Clerk who shall conduct said election. The said Judges and Clerk before undertaking to perform the duties of their office, shall subscribe to the same oath as is now
