SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the government of said Town shall be vested in five councilmen at large, the first of whom are to be appointed in this Act by the General Assembly of Maryland. Two of the councilmen appointed by this Charter as hereinafter designated, shall serve until the election herein provided for on the first Monday in May, 1954, and three of said Councilmen appointed by this Charter as hereinafter designated, shall serve until the biennial election on the first Monday in May, 1956. On the first Monday in May, 1954, there shall be a general election as herein provided, at which two councilmen shall be elected for four year terms to succeed the two councilmen hereby appointed whose terms of office shall expire at that time. At the biennial election on the first Monday in May, 1956, there shall be a general election at which three councilmen shall be elected for four year terms to succeed the three councilmen hereby appointed whose terms of office shall expire at that time. At each biennial election held on the first Monday in May of every even numbered year, beginning on the first Monday in May, 1954, the qualified voters of the Town shall alternately elect two councilmen and three councilmen to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms for which the incumbents were appointed or elected.

The councilmen appointed by this Charter and all councilmen appointed or elected at interim elections, shall assume the duties of their respective offices as soon after their appointment or election as practicable, and unless removed for cause, shall continue to serve until their successors are duly elected and installed. Each councilman elected at each election under this Charter shall fill the office to which he is elected, beginning with the first meeting of the Mayor and Council following his election, and unless removed for cause, shall continue to serve until the first regular meeting of the Mayor and Council following the election of his successor.

The five councilmen appointed by this Charter to serve until the election herein provided on the first Monday in May, 1954, shall meet on the third Monday in June, 1953, after the effective date of this Act, and shall elect from their number, one member to be designated as Mayor, and another member to be designated as Mayor pro tem, and such Mayor and Mayor pro tem shall be elected from the
