

persons receiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices voted upon elected, and shall record a copy thereof among their proceedings.

In the event of a tie vote for any office, there shall be an election on the fourth Monday in May for the office or offices so tied. The terms of all elective officers shall begin on the first Monday in June next succeeding the election. The Mayor and Councilmen elected in May, 1936, and those elected to fill said offices hereafter shall each serve for two years or until his, or their, successor, or successors, shall have qualified.

1239. On the same day on which the Mayor and Common Council is to be elected under this sub-title, and on each and every first Monday in May in every other year after the year 1936, said election on the first Monday in May, 1936, to be held as provided by the provision of the law existing at this time, one person, a legal voter in said town, and owner of real estate to the value of at least one thousand dollars, shall be chosen by the voters of said town as its Treasurer, the person so elected in May, 1936, and elected in every other year thereafter as herein provided, to serve for two years, and until his or her successor shall qualify, but before said Treasurer shall enter upon the duties assigned, he shall [give] execute and deliver a bond payable to the Mayor and Common Council of Seat Pleasant, [in such penalty as the Mayor and Common Council may fix, with securities to be approved by them, conditioned as they may direct] at the cost and expense of the town, payable to the Mayor and Common Council of Seat Pleasant in the penalty of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), the sureties to be approved by the Mayor and Common Council and conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, and the said Treasurer shall qualify and enter upon the duties of his office on or before the first Monday in June succeeding his election, and a failure to qualify within the time herein specified shall be deemed a refusal to accept the office, whereupon the Mayor and Common Council shall order a new election to fill the vacancy, such election to be held in the manner prescribed by Section 1237 hereof. In the event of the death, resignation, inability to act, or removal for cause of the Treasurer by the Mayor and Common Council, it shall be its duty to appoint another Treasurer under like conditions as to bond, to serve until the next succeeding town election at which his successor[s] shall be chosen to serve until the expiration of the next regular term of
