8. Remedies of a State or Political Subdivision Thereof
Furnishing Support.

Whenever the state or a political subdivision thereof has furnished support to an obligee it shall have the same right to invoke the provisions hereof as the obligee to whom the support was furnished for the purpose of securing reimbursement of expenditures so made and of obtaining continuing support.

10. Contents of Petition for Support.

The petition shall be verified and shall state the name and, so far as known to the petitioner, the address and circumstances of the obligor and his or her dependents for whom support is sought and all other pertinent information. The petitioner may include in or attach to the petition any information which may help in locating or identifying the obligor including, but without limitation by enumeration, a photograph of the obligor, a description of any distinguishing marks of his person, other names and aliases by which he has been or is known, the name of his employer, his finger prints, or social security number.

11. Duty of Court of this State as Initiating State.

(a) If the Court of this State acting as an initiating state finds that the petition sets forth facts from which it may be determined that the respondent owes a duty of support and that a court of the responding state may obtain jurisdiction of the defendant or his property, the court shall so certify and shall cause certified copies of the petition, the certificate and [an authenticated copy of] this Article to be transmitted to the Court of the responding State. If the name and address of such court is unknown and the responding state has an information agency comparable to that established in the initiating state, it shall cause such copies to be transmitted to the state information agency or other proper official of the responding state, with a request that it forward them to the proper court, and that the court of the responding state acknowledge their receipt to the court of the initiating state.

(b) In the event the petitioner makes oath that she is without sufficient funds to obtain personal counsel it shall
