

tion not inconsistent with the provisions of this Article. If the inhabitants of the town shall at any time neglect to make an election at the time herein mentioned, the power of electing Commissioners shall not cease, but the right and power of said inhabitants in that respect shall continue and the President and Commissioners for the time being shall continue in office until such an election shall be held.

93. The Plat of the town on file and on record in the Office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil County shall be deemed and taken as evidences of its limits and boundaries.

94. The President and Commissioners aforesaid, at their first meeting which shall be on the first Monday in July, or as soon as possible thereafter, shall, whenever they deem it necessary, select one person to serve as Bailiff of said town for one year and until his successor is selected and qualified; and said Bailiff shall have the same powers and authority as a constable duly appointed for Cecil County; and on the first Monday of July they shall appoint one person as Clerk and Treasurer of said town, who shall serve for one year, and until his successor is appointed and qualified. The President may appoint from among the four commissioners, one commissioner to be known as "The Commissioner of Streets and Public Property", who shall have under his special charge the supervision of streets, sewers, alleys, public grounds and property of the town, and who shall have under his special charge the supervision of all public improvements except as may be otherwise provided; and who shall have under his special charge the construction, maintenance and operation of the water and lighting systems of said town, and shall see to the enforcement of all rules and regulations with respect to said systems.

95. At the first meeting of the President and Commissioners of Chesapeake City in July of each year, they shall set the amount of the salary to be paid during the year to the Clerk-Treasurer of the town, which salary so set shall not exceed the sum of $750.00, and to the Commissioner of streets and public property, water and lights which shall not exceed $500.00. They shall have the power to designate and employ by way of a retainer or otherwise an Attorney at Law to be their legal adviser or their representative and may contract with him as to his compensation and duties in their behalf. They may by order or ordinance define and prescribe the duties of the bailiff and the amount of