

rate, and all persons not mentioned in this act, (except the heirs of the late Jeremiah Crabb,) the several and respective rights.

VI. AND BE IT ENACTED, That when and so soon as the land aforesaid shall have been laid out into lots, as authorised by this act, that then and in that case the aforesaid Elizabeth Crabb be and she is hereby empowered to sell, convey and transfer, to any purchaser or purchasers, any lot or lots, or part thereof, so as aforesaid laid out, which conveyance, when made, executed, and recorded amongst the records of the county court of Montgomery county, shall be deemed and taken to be a good and valid conveyance to pass an estate in fee-simple to such purchaser or purchasers, any lot or lots to be laid out in virtue of this act, any law, usage or custom, to the contrary notwithstanding; provided nevertheless, that the said Elizabeth Crabb, before she proceeds to sell or convey any lot or lots as aforesaid to be laid out, shall enter into bond to the state of Maryland, such penalty, and with two good and sufficient sureties, such as the orphans court of Montgomery county shall think proper to direct and approve of, for the faithfully accounting for, and settling up with the orphans court of said county, to the full amount of the lots sold under and in virtue of this act, the amount of which sales shall be considered as assets in her hands, and liable for the payment of the debts of the late Jeremiah Crabb, deceased.

VII. AND, whereas by the sale of the lots aforesaid, personal property to the amount thereof would be saved, to which the said Elizabeth Crabb would be entitled to one third part; therefore, BE IT ENACTED, That personal property to the full amount of the lots sold in virtue of this act, be deducted from the amount of the personal estate of the late Jeremiah Crabb, and remain subject to distribution only among the heirs of Jeremiah Crabb, deceased, and that the orphans court of Montgomery county be and they are hereby authorised to make an allowance to the said Elizabeth Crabb, in the settlement of the estate of the late Jeremiah Crabb, deceased, to the full amount of what they believe would have been her proportion in right of dower to the lots sold under and in virtue of this act.

VIII. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all expences incurred in the execution of this act shall be paid by the aforesaid Elizabeth Crabb, administratrix of Jeremiah Crabb, to be allowed her by the orphans court of Montgomery county in the settlement of the estate of the late Jeremiah Crabb, deceased.

Passed 25th of January, 1806.

A Supplement to an act, entitled, An act to incorporate a company to make a turnpike road to lead from the cross roads near Richard Caton's limekiln, in Baltimore county, nearly in the direction of Jones's Falls, to the city of Baltimore.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for the falls turnpike road company to open a road on the east side of Jones's Falls towards Old-town, by passing from the ford of Messieurs Patterson and Stricker's mill to the stone bridge opposite to the mill of Josiah Pennington, and the same shall be made good and firm, by stone or gravel; and for passing the said road towards Old-town, no greater toll shall be collected than is by law allowed to be collected on that part leading to Howard-street.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That Robert Stewart, Josiah Pennington and William C. Goldsmith are hereby authorised to lay out and mark, within six months from the passing of this act, as straight a road as may be practicable, from the said ford near to the mill of Messieurs Patterson and Stricker's, to the stone bridge opposite to the mill of Josiah Pennington, and a plot of the said road, laid off, shall, when certified by the said commissioners, be lodged, by the falls turnpike road company, among the records of Baltimore county.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the falls turnpike company shall not erect any toll-gate within one mile of the present limits of the city of Baltimore, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

An ACT for the support of Covington Jones and wife. WHEREAS Covington Jones, of Dorchester county, by his petition to this general assembly hath set forth, that he has a wife and four small sickly children, that he has been and is now so maimed and disabled as to render him incapable of gaining a support from year to year for himself and family, and praying that a law may pass to provide for himself and wife; therefore,
