

CHAP. 136.

Fine, &c.

mould, dirt or rubbish of any kind, such person being convicted thereof by the evidence of one or more credible witnesses, and disinterested ones, before any justice of the peace of the county, he or she shall be judged by the said justices to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered with costs; which fine shall, when recovered, be paid to the treasurer of the company, for the use of said company.

Wagoners and drivers of carriages to keep to the right.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That all wagoners, and drivers of carriages of all kinds, whether of burden or pleasure, using the said road, shall, except when passing by a carriage of slower draught, keep their horses and carriages to the right hand of said road, in the passing direction, leaving the other side of the road free and clear for other carriages to pass and repass; and if any driver shall offend against this provision, he shall forfeit and pay not exceeding ten dollars, to any person who shall be obstructed in his passage, and will warrant for the same; to be recovered with costs before any justice, in the same manner as debts under ten dollars are recoverable; and all fines and forfeitures imposed by this act, not exceeding ten pounds, shall be recoverable before any magistrate in the same manner as debts under ten dollars are recoverable.

Fines and forfeitures.

President and Managers to keep an account of monies received from toll gatherers.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That the president and managers of said company shall keep a just and true account of all monies received by their respective toll-gatherers, at their several and respective gates on said road, which account shall be upon oath or affirmation, as the case may be when required; and shall make a dividend of the clear profits and income thereof, not exceeding ten per cent., among the stockholders, which dividend shall be declared half yearly, in the months of January and July, and published and paid accordingly.

Not to ask toll from persons owning land where gates are kept.

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for said company to ask, demand or receive of or from any person or persons, within the lines of whose lands any gates may be erected, any toll for passing from one part to another part of said land along said road.

Issues forbid.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed, to allow said company to issue any note, token, scrip, certificate or other evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

In force forty years.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That this act of incorporation shall continue in force for forty years, and that the General Assembly hereby reserves the right to alter, amend or repeal this act at pleasure.
