

it would be beneficial to the stockholders in said institution, and advantageous to the public in general, to subdivide the shares of the capital stock thereof, now fixed by the act of incorporation at three hundred dollars, into shares of one hundred dollars, and have prayed that an act may be passed for that purpose. CHAP. 177.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, and the assent of the stockholders thereto, as hereinafter provided, each and every share of capital stock of the President, Directors and Company of the Bank of Baltimore, shall be subdivided into three shares of one hundred dollars each, any thing in the act of incorporation, or in any supplement thereto, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Capital stock of Bank of Baltimore subdivided.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the number of votes, to which each stockholder shall be entitled, shall be according to the number of shares he shall hold, in the proportion mentioned and provided for by the first fundamental article of said act of incorporation; provided, that every ten shares above one hundred, shall be entitled to one vote, but that no person or body politic shall be entitled to a greater number than sixty votes. Votes of stockholders.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall be considered in full force and virtue, as soon as the president and directors of said bank, shall by resolution authorised at a general meeting of the stockholders, to be called for that purpose, declare their acceptance thereof, and transmit to the Treasurer of the Western Shore, a copy of said resolution, certified under the common seal of said corporation. Proviso.

Full force and virtue.
