

sioners shall, before making such levy, be fully satisfied, and shall determine that such bridge is requisite and necessary for the convenience and wants of the citizens of the said county. CHAP. 183.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if the said county commissioners, shall deem the building of such bridge over Big Elk Creek expedient and proper, and shall determine in favour of it, after having proceeded to levy the requisite amount for building the same, the said commissioners are hereby authorised and empowered to let the building of such bridge out at contract, to such person or persons, and on such terms as shall by them be deemed the most advantageous to the interests of the said county. Commissioners authorised to contract.

An act to make valid a certain Deed of Conveyance therein mentioned. Passed March 3, 1845.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly of Maryland, That a certain William B. Callicot, and Margaret Callicot, his wife, of Cecil county, heretofore, on the twelfth day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-one, by their deed of conveyance, conveyed to a certain Jane McCreary, of said county, a piece or parcel of land, lying and being in Cecil county aforesaid; AND WHEREAS, the said deed was duly executed and acknowledged agreeably to law, and recorded among the land record books of said county, in liber G. M. C., number one, folio 121; AND WHEREAS, the said William B. Callicot, who was an alien, neglected to become naturalized, agreeably to the laws of the United States, within twelve months after his being capable of becoming a citizen as required by the laws of this State, but has since been naturalized, and to cure said defect—Therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said deed be, and the same is hereby declared valid and effectual, in the same manner as if the said William B. Callicot had naturalized himself agreeably to the laws of the United States, within the period required by the laws of this State. Preamble:
Deed made valid.
