SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said company be authorised and permitted, in their discretion, to alter and change their present place of branching for the Mc'Call's Ferry Route, to any other more suitable point, in their opinion, at or between the lane now known as the School House Lane, and the finger board at or near the Copper Factory Dam, any thing in the original act to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 187.

Passed Feb. 25, 1845. An act imposing a tax on Commissions allowed to Trustees and Receivers, to aid in paying the debts of the State.

Tax imposed on commissions allowed trustees, &c. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases, in which commissions shall be allowed to trustees or receivers by the court of chancery, the county courts of the several counties of this State, or of Howard District, as courts of equity or otherwise, such commissions shall be subject to a tax for the benefit of this State of one-tenth part of the sum so allowed, to be taxed by the auditor of the court, by which such commissions shall be allowed, in auditing the account or accounts of said trustees, or receivers respectively.

Tax to be paid to register in chancery, &c. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the trustee or receiver, as the case may be, to pay to the register of chancery, or to the clerk of the court of the county, or of Howard District, as the case may be, the sum so taxed by the auditor, under the first section of this act, within thirty days after the account reported by the said auditor; shall have been finally ratified and confirmed, and on the failure of the said trustee or receiver, as the case
