

CHAPTER 190.

CHAP. 190.

An act to authorise the Trustees of School District number two, in Election District number three, of Talbot county, to levy a tax on the taxable property of said district, for the payment of a balance due on the School House therein mentioned.

Passed March 5, 1845.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, that the inhabitants of school district number two, election district number three, of Talbot county, are about to be deprived of the benefits of the primary school system in said county, owing to a balance due for the school house in said district, from the fact of one of the original trustees of said school, having used a portion of the money, levied for the building of said school house, and having since departed this life insolvent; AND WHEREAS, the said house is about to be sold for the balance due thereon, and the children of the inhabitants of said district will then be deprived of the inestimable benefit and advantages of education—Therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the trustees of school district number two, in election district number three, of Talbot county, commonly known as the Trappe district, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to levy and assess upon the taxable inhabitants of said district, the sum of three hundred dollars, it being the balance due on a school house, purchased by former trustees of said school district, the above sum to be applied to the payment and liquidation of the said balance due for said school house, in said district of Talbot county.

Trustees authorised to levy and assess.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the trustees of said school district, be and they are hereby authorised, empowered and required to appoint a collector for the collection of said sum, by the first section of this act, ordered and required to be levied and assessed.

Trustee authorised to appoint a collector.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the collector to be appointed by said trustees, be and he is hereby invested with all power for the collection of said tax, now conferred upon the collector of county taxes in Talbot county, and that the said trustees shall have full power to levy in addition to the tax specified in the first section, such further sum, not exceeding ten per centum as they may deem a just compensation for the services of the said collector.

Collector invested with power, &c.
