

CHAP. 193.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That an election for justices of the levy court of Frederick county, shall be held in the several levy court districts of said county, on the first Wednesday of October, eighteen hundred and forty-five, and annually thereafter; at the usual places in the same manner, according to the general election laws, and by the same judges who may hold elections for delegates to the General Assembly, and the said judges holding said elections, shall within three days after said election make returns as usual in other elections to the clerk of Frederick county court, to be by him recorded in his office, and a certified copy thereof shall be furnished to the justices of said court, at the first meeting which a majority of them may attend, on or after the first Monday of November next, after their election.

In case of vacancy, &c.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That in the case of a vacancy by the death, resignation, refusal to act, removal from the district, or by a tie among two or more, at said elections, or from any other cause, a new election shall be held in the proper levy court district to supply the vacancy, the election judges, or any one or more of them in said district, first giving at least ten days notice of such new election in one or more newspapers of the county, and by handbills put at public places in said district, and said election shall be held and regulated as the first election is directed to be by this act.

Have all the powers, rights &c. heretofore exercised.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the justices of the levy court of said county hereafter elected in virtue of this act, shall have all the powers, rights and authority, be subject to the same qualifications, perform all the duties, and make all the appointments that the justices of the levy court of said county, have heretofore had and exercised, under the laws in being before, and at the time of the passage of this act.

Repealed.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts of Assembly, so far as they are inconsistent with this act, be and they are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 193.

Passed March 5, 1845.

An act to make valid a certain Deed of Manumission therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, That heretofore in the month of June, eighteen hundred and twenty-four, a certain Joshua Buffington, then of Fre-