

1844. THOMAS G. PRATT, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR.

CHAP. 199.

CHAPTER 197.

Passed March 5, 1845. An act to authorise the Commissioners of Baltimore County, to divide in equal proportions, between the City and County of Baltimore, the Baltimore and Havre de Grace Road Stock, standing in the name of the Levy Court of Baltimore County, and for other purposes.

Commissioners authorised to divide stock. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Baltimore county, are hereby authorised and empowered to divide in equal proportions between the city and county of Baltimore, the stock in the Baltimore and Havre de Grace Road Company, now standing in the name of the late levy court of Baltimore county; and that the treasurer of said county be, and he is hereby authorised and empowered to transfer said stock in the proportions above mentioned, to the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and to the commissioners of the county for the use and benefit of said county.

CHAPTER 198.

Passed March 6, 1845. A supplement to an act entitled, an act to Incorporate the Maryland Historical Society.

Authorised to establish Gallery of Fine Arts. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Maryland Historical Society be, and it hereby is authorised and empowered to establish and maintain a Gallery of the Fine Arts, and also to establish or cause to be delivered public lectures on the fine arts, or on literary or on scientific subjects.

CHAPTER 199.

Passed March 6, 1845. An act for the Benefit of the Trustees of the Primary Schools of Saint Mary's County.

Preamble. WHEREAS, The trustees of the primary schools in Saint Mary's county have experienced considerable difficulties in collecting the dues and subscriptions to said schools, from the fact that they are not allowed to sue or warrant as trustees of the particular schools of which they may be the trustees, but must warrant or sue in their individual names—Therefore,