CHAPTER 200.

An act to authorise the commissioners of the tax of Baltimore and Carroll Counties, to build a bridge over the Patapsco Falls on the Marriottsville Road. Passed March 6, 1845.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if the commissioners of the tax of Baltimore and Carroll counties, shall deem it necessary and expedient for the public convenience, (and not otherwise,) to build a bridge across the Patapsco Falls, on the Marriottsville road, then and in that case, it shall and may be lawful for them to levy upon the assessable property of said counties, equally and respectively, a sum of money sufficient in their judgments for building and constructing said bridge, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars. Commissioners to build a bridge, if necessary.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners of the tax of the counties aforesaid, are hereby authorised and required to appoint two commissioners, one from Baltimore county and one from Carroll county, who shall superintend the building of said bridge, and shall contract with a person or persons to build the same, which person or persons so contracted with, shall give bond to the said commissioners, so as aforesaid appointed, with good and sufficient security, to build the said bridge in a good, substantial and workmanlike manner. Commissioners authorised to appoint superintendents.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That unless the levy before mentioned, be made by both counties, by the first day of June, eighteen hundred and forty-seven, then and in that case, this act shall expire by its own limitation. Levy to be made before June 1st 1847.
