

may pass all by-laws and regulations aforesaid; may fix and regulate the time or times, and manner and terms and conditions of receiving further subscriptions (within the limit aforesaid,) to the capital stock, and of all transfers of stock; and also the manner of receiving votes at and of conducting any election for president and directors.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That this act shall not be construed to confer on said corporation any banking powers, nor the right to issue any bill or note in the form or style of a bank note.

CHAP. 232.

Issues forbid.

CHAPTER 232.

An act to constitute School District Number One, of the Middle Election District of Caroline County, a Primary School.

Passed March 1, 1845.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That school district number one, of the middle election district of Caroline county, shall be comprised within the following limits, viz:—beginning at a point called the Sleeper, where the county road which divides the upper from the middle election district of said county, intersects the Tuckahoe creek, and running thence in a southerly direction with said road until it joins the county road leading from Hillsborough to Greensborough; thence with said road towards Greensborough, until it reaches the north-eastern boundary of the land on which John W. Williams now lives; and thence running in a southerly direction so as to include within its eastern limits the aforesaid land of John W. Williams and Denwood Long's land; from thence crossing the county road leading from Hillsborough to Denton, and running southerly so as to include the lands of Perdue Keets, Martin Robinson, Rev. Ezekiel Cooper, James E. Barroll, and the lands on which Henry Saulsbury now lives; thence running in a westerly direction, including the lands on which Robert Thawly resides, until it intersects the aforesaid Tuckahoe creek; from thence with the waters of said creek, northerly and easterly, to the aforesaid place of beginning.

Limits of School district No. 1.

Meet in August annually.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That on the second Monday in August next, and annually thereafter, the taxable inhabitants of the aforesaid school district number one, of the middle election district of Caroline county, comprised within the limits as above defined, shall meet at the school house in said district, at which time a major-