

CHAP. 233.

May purchase and hold lands and real estate

Make dams,
&c.

Proviso.

To construct reservoirs.

To construct and repair said works.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the said corporation may purchase and hold in fee simple or otherwise, all such lands and real estate suitable for the erection of the necessary works, and that may be necessary in whole or in part for the proper accomplishment of their undertaking, as shall be proper, and may divert from the usual bed and course for the purpose aforesaid, at such place or places as they shall think fit and suitable for the purpose, any stream or streams which they may think suitable or any part or parts thereof, and the said corporation shall have full power and authority to make conduits, pipes, sluices, schutes, and use the water aforesaid, in said conduits, pipes, sluices, schutes, or other machinery in such quantities as necessary to force and carry stone, coal, &c., and shall have power to make all necessary spouts, and collect streams of water, and make dams wherever needed for the purposes of forcing and carrying coal, or any other material through said spouts, sluices, &c., from any point or points in the Frostburg district, Allegany county, to the town of Cumberland, and the said corporation shall have power to appropriate and use all water necessary to and for any machinery or improvement, which may be projected to carry or force coal through any such improvement, and shall have power to divert from the usual bed or course, any tributary stream to Braddock's run, or any stream in the Frostburg or Cumberland districts, and shall have power to make said pipes, sluices, schutes, conduits, &c., for the conveyance of said coal and water over and along any public highway, and the works, to renew and repair from time to time; provided, the same does not interfere with the public travel, and the said corporation shall have power to make said conduits, pipes, sluices, and schutes, to any point between said Frostburg district and the town of Cumberland, and from time to time, extend said improvement and its works, until the same reached the said town of Cumberland, or any point within the said town in the discretion of said company.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall have full power and authority to construct reservoirs, and establish fountains in such parts of said works as they may think proper, along the line of said improvements

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the president and directors of the said company, may construct and repair said works, according to the determination of the said president and directors, and that they may contract for making of the said work or any of the machinery, and may with their agents enter upon, use and excavate, any land they may need for the said works, or the erection of buildings necessary to said improvement, and may build bridges,