WHEREAS, it is provided by the act of seventeen hundred and ninety-six, chapter sixty-eight, that the mayor of the city of Baltimore shall be elected by electors on the third Monday of February, to serve for the term of two years "thereafter;" AND WHEREAS, the act of seventeen hundred and ninety-seven, chapter fifty-four, provides for the election of said officer in manner as above, but changes the time of his election by said electors to the first Monday of November, to serve for two years "thereafter;" AND WHEREAS, by act of eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter two hundred and six, it is provided that the said officer shall be voted for directly by the people; AND WHEREAS, by existing act the said election is directed to be held on the third Monday in October without a particular designation of the time at which said Mayor shall take his seat, thus leaving the day of his going into office a matter of much doubt,—Therefore,
