

CHAP. 77.

CHAPTER 76.

Passed Feb. 13, 1845. An act for the benefit of Philip Clayton, Collector of Taxes for the City of Annapolis.

Authorised to collect

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Philip Clayton, collector of taxes for the city of Annapolis, for the years eighteen hundred and forty, eighteen hundred and forty-one, eighteen hundred and forty-two, and eighteen hundred and forty-three, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to collect any taxes or balances of taxes, now remaining due, and uncollected by him in said city, in the same manner, and with the same powers and privileges as are allowed by the existing laws in such cases made and provided.

Make affidavit

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Philip Clayton shall in every instance, before he shall proceed to the aforesaid collection, make affidavit before some justice of the peace of said county, or before the mayor, recorder or one of the aldermen of said city, that the taxes remain due and unpaid, and that he hath not received any security or satisfaction for the same, or any part thereof, more than the credits which may be allowed thereon.

Continue one year.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this act shall not continue in force longer than one year from the passage thereof.

CHAPTER 77.

Passed Feb. 12, 1845. An act in relation to Primary Schools in Charles County.

Trustees not to pay teacher over $200 per year.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for the trustees of any primary school in Charles county, to authorise the payment to any teacher in any of the primary schools in said county, out of the school fund, of any greater sum than at the rate of two hundred dollars per scholastic year, to consist of at least eleven months, unless the teacher or teachers who may not have taught the length of time herein specified, shall have been prevented from attending his, her, or their duties by sickness.

Trustees to report.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the trustees of each and every school district, at the time of making their report to the Orphan's court of said county, shall set forth therein, the length of time such teacher was actually employed in teaching children at the school house within said school district.
