

low Thomas Lusby, former sheriff and collector of Kent county, further time to complete his collections, passed at December session eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter two hundred and fifty-five, be and the same is further extended until the fifteenth day of February, eighteen hundred and forty-six. CHAP. 110.

---

CHAPTER 109.

An act to alter and change a portion of the main Road leading from Frederick, to Georgetown. Passed Feb. 17, 1845.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the Levy court of Frederick county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, if in their discretion the public good require it, to cause to be altered, changed and re-made that portion, of the main road leading from Frederick to Georgetown, which passes through the lands of Nicholas Worthington, of John, and lying on the west side of Bennet's creek. Levy court authorised to change &c. the main road

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That said justices of the Levy court shall cause to be closed and shut up that portion of the old road, which shall be there altered and changed; provided, said alteration, change and closing up can be made without any expense or charge to Frederick county. Proviso.

---

CHAPTER 110.

A supplement to an act relating to the Citizens Bank of Baltimore. Passed Feb. 19, 1845.

WHEREAS, the Citizens Bank of Baltimore by virtue of the act to which this is a supplement, has returned to the stockholders eight dollars on each share of the capital stock thereof, and finds it to be expedient to reduce the number of directors, and to make some other alterations in the charter adapted to the change in the circumstances of the corporation—Therefore, Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That at the next annual election of directors, there shall be elected eight, instead of the number now authorised; one of whom shall be president for the time being, and five of whom shall constitute a quorum. Next annual election, eight directors to be elected.