

CHAP. 128.

CHAPTER 128.

Passed Feb.
15, 1846.

An act to incorporate the Southern Dispensary of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, in view of the rapid enlargement of the southern portion of the city of Baltimore, a number of the inhabitants in said city, have founded a benevolent institution, under the name of the Southern Dispensary of Baltimore, and have petitioned the General Assembly for an act of incorporation, to enable them more efficiently to carry out the objects of said dispensary.

Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John R. Kelso, Francis Foreman, A. G. Cole, Asa Needham, John N. McJilton, George C. Addison, William S. Birch, James Hooper, jr., Charles R. Coleman, Edward Wright, George W. Krebs, John S. Brown, Joseph Sims, James O. Law, Alexander Carter, John Hurst, Peter Kiernan, Beverly Waugh, J. G. Hamner, Johns Hopkins, Henry F. Cook, Edward Clayton, William Hamilton, Jacob Erl, Stephen P. Hill, William O. Sanderson, Thomas Atkinson, C. P. Krawth, B. F. Nadal, L. R. Reese, Joseph Plotner, Daniel McJilton, John Addison, John L. Battie, William Roberts, Wakeman Bryarly, D. H. B. McClelan, George C. M. Roberts, William W. Handy, Arthur Rich and John R. W. Dunbar and their successors, who shall be elected or become contributors, from time to time be, and they are hereby declared to be one community and corporation and body politic forever, by the name of the Southern Dispensary of Baltimore, and by the same name shall have perpetual succession, and shall and may at all times hereafter be persons able and capable in law, to purchase, take, have and enjoy to them and their successors, in fee, or less estate, any lands, tenements, rents, annuities, chattels, bank stock, registered debt or debts, public securities, by the gift, bargain, sale or devise, of any person or person, bodies politic or corporate, capable to make the same, and the same to alien, sell, transfer or lease in such a manner as they may judge most conducive to the benefit of said dispensary; provided, that the whole amount of property, real, personal or mixed, which the said body politic or corporate shall at any time hold or possess, shall not exceed in total value the sum of fifty thousand dollars.

Name.

Corporate powers.

Legal capacity.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the corporation and their successors, by the name aforesaid, shall be forever hereafter able to plead and be defended and before all soever, in all whatsoever, and to have and keep the same at the will of the owners, to change them they shall think fit to exercise all rights as by law are and what may be instituted, to enact concerning the dispensary, to make such by necessary for the ed, the same be of the United

SEC. 3. And shall appoint such think advisable to take charge of the dispensary, of the dispection of said cal aid to the pe same, and

SEC. 4. And shall enure the same, and that to amend or re

SEC. 5. And shall be so content to issue any no of debt to be u

An act supplementing the Power of the Order of Resolution of December session 1845. Be it enacted That the style