

CHAP. 131. Five of the Order of Independent Red Men of the State of Maryland, incorporated by the act to which this is a supplement, shall and is hereby declared to be Powhatan Tribe Number Five of the Independent Order of Red Men of the State of Maryland; and that so much of the act to which this is a supplement as is inconsistent herewith, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repealed.

CHAPTER 130.

Passed Feb. 14, 1846.

An act relating to Boarding Houses in Baltimore City.

Register name &c.—receive certificate.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, any person or persons who shall, on or before the first day of May in each and every year, register his, her, or their name or names, as the keeper or keepers of any boarding house in the city of Baltimore, with the clerk of Baltimore county court, on payment of the sum of one dollar in full of all charges, shall thereupon be entitled to receive a certificate under seal, of such registration, and the bona fide goods and chattels of any boarder or lodger, permanently or transitorily residing in such boarding house or houses within the limits aforesaid, shall not be liable to be taken by distress, or by any other legal process for rent in arrear, or any other debt due from the keeper or keepers of any such registered boarding house or houses.

CHAPTER 131.

Passed Feb 13, 1846.

An act entitled, an act to prevent unlawful dealing with Negroes, and the reception of stolen goods in Prince George's County.

Lawful under oath.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it may be lawful upon complaint made under oath to the county court of Prince George's county, or to any judge thereof during the recess of said court by any inhabitant of this State, that he verily suspects or believes that any person having a license to trade or sell in said county deals unlawfully, in the habit of receiving stolen goods, as the case may be, upon a certain day, or sell, direct or indirect charge in the turn day of the year, by the sheriff of the district where he resides, and the sum of one dollar or her place may be, shall be that such person or persons, if such court shall so order, that such person or persons receives goods, the said judge shall so licensed, and if the county court shall so order, not have the right of continuing the same during the period of the year.

A supplement to the Act of Error, and

SECTION 1.

Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it may be lawful upon complaint made under oath to the county court of Prince George's county, or to any judge thereof during the recess of said court by any inhabitant of this State, that he verily suspects or believes that any person having a license to trade or sell in said county