

deals unlawfully with negroes or mulattoes, or is in the habit of receiving stolen goods, the said court or judge as the case may be, shall issue a summons, returnable upon a certain day, to such person so authorised to trade or sell, directing him or her to appear and answer the charge in the said affidavit contained; and upon the return day of said summons, which may be served either by the sheriff of the county, or constable of the election district where such person so authorised to trade or sell resides, and if such person shall be returned summoned, or the summons shall have been left for ten days at his or her place of abode, the said court or judge as the case may be, shall proceed to try the case; and if satisfied that such person or persons have dealt with negroes or mulattoes contrary to law, or received stolen goods, or if such court or judge shall have good reason to believe that such person so licensed to trade or sell, deals or receives goods in the manner aforesaid, the said court or judge shall suppress his or her license; provided, that if the said judge shall so suppress said license, the person so licensed to trade or sell may if he or she feels aggrieved by the decision of said judge, appeal to the next county court, which may either suppress or permit the continuance of his or her license; but such appeal shall not have the effect to allow such person to trade or sell during the pendency thereof.

CHAP. 132.

Issue summons.

Try the case— suppress license.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 132.

A supplement to an act entitled, an act regulating Writs of Error, and granting Appeals to the Court of Appeals. Passed Feb. 20, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That on any appeal being entered in any county court or Howard District court, of this State, from any judgment of the court upon motions to set aside sales, or on motion for application for money in the hands of the sheriffs of any county in this State or of Howard District, under any process in their hands from said courts, made in virtue of executions issued out of the county courts, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the courts to make out and transmit to the Court of Appeals of the Western or Eastern Shore as the case may be, to which such appeal may be made, the record of said case under the hand of the clerk and the seal of the court

Clerk to make out and transmit record.