CHAPTER 133.

Passed Feb. 21, 1846.

An act entitled, a further supplement to the act to regulate the fees of Notaries Public, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter two hundred and eighty.

Notaries Public to give bond.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all Notaries Public who shall be hereafter appointed by the Executive, shall be required before they shall be commissioned or authorised to discharge the duties of their office, to give a bond to the State of Maryland, with security to be approved of by the Governor, in the penalty of two thousand dollars, conditioned for the payment into the treasury of that portion of the notarial fees received by them for the use of the State, and which under the supplemental act of December session, eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter one hundred and ninety-six, they are required to pay into the treasury.

Neglect or refuse to bond.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if any person who shall be hereafter appointed a notary public, shall neglect or refuse to give the bond required by the preceding section of this act, within thirty days from the date of his appointment, it shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint some other person in his place.
