

CHAP. 163. sure and inspect the same, but not otherwise; and if only a part of the lumber belonging to such owner, and which he shall desire to have inspected, shall have arrived at Perryville, the said inspector may measure and inspect the balance thereof on its way to market while in the Susquehanna river; provided, that from stress of weather, or some unavoidable circumstance, it cannot be taken to Perryville; and no lumber inspected by the inspector, herein authorised to be appointed, shall be liable to re-inspection if sent to Baltimore by the inspectors at that city; provided, that nothing herein contained shall authorise the said inspector to inspect lumber at Havre-de-Grace or Port Deposit.

Limits of the town.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That for the purposes in this act contained, the limits of the town of Perryville, on the shore of the Susquehanna river, shall be deemed and taken to extend from the north side of the rail road depot along the Susquehanna to a tract of land called Rich Hill.

Penalty,

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if any inspector or inspectors, other than the measurer and inspectors appointed under this act, shall inspect or measure lumber at Perryville, he or they shall be subject to a penalty of five dollars for each piece of lumber or timber which he or they shall so inspect, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of Cecil County, as small debts are now recovered by law, one half to the use of the State and one half to the informer.

Inspector—how to be governed.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the inspector of lumber appointed under this act, shall be governed by the provisions of the act of December session, eighteen hundred and eleven, chapter seventy, and the third and fourth sections of the act of December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter one hundred and forty one.

Rate of inspection.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said inspector shall be entitled to receive, as a compensation for inspecting all boards, plank and scantling, at the rate of thirty cents for every thousand feet, board measure, and for inspecting shingles, he shall be entitled to receive twenty cents for each and every thousand, one half to be paid by the seller, and one half by the buyer.
