

CHAP. 182. whereas, the said Thomas Wilson by a bill of sale, dated the ninth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-six, did sell and dispose of, to a certain Lewis H. Brown of Carroll county, in the State of Maryland, his executors, administrators and assigns, the aforesaid negro man, called Philip Cypress, for the same term of years as aforesaid; and whereas, all the aforesaid bills of sale appears to have been duly recorded amongst the records of Baltimore county court in the State of Maryland, and that the said purchasers have not signed and sealed said bills of sale as required by the act of assembly in such cases made and provided, and it requires some legislative action to make said bills of sale good and effectual in law—now therefore,

Made valid.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the deeds or bills of sale as aforesaid be and the same are hereby declared to be valid and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the same had been duly signed and sealed by the purchasers as aforesaid, and as if in respect of such signing and sealing or execution of said deeds or bills of sale the said purchasers had as required by law as aforesaid duly acknowledged said deeds or bills of sale.
