

lot and dwelling, and to make a good and sufficient deed for the same, the said Jacob Flook of John, and Henry Smeltzer, Sen., to dispose of said property, upon such terms as to them may seem most advantageous, and the money arising from the same, to be applied in the manner described in the first section of this act, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That all acts, inconsistent with this act, be and they are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 183.

An act to authorise and direct the Moderator and other Commissioners of Hagerstown to appropriate a sum, not exceeding eight hundred, for the purchase of an Engine, &c., for the use of the Junior Fire Company of that place. Passed Feb. 25, 1846.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the moderator and other commissioners of Hagerstown, be and they are hereby authorised and directed to purchase with any unappropriated funds in their hands, as commissioners aforesaid, a Fire Engine and apparatus, not to exceed in cost the sum of eight hundred dollars, for the use of the Junior Fire Company of Hagerstown. Authorised to purchase.

CHAPTER 184.

An act to allow John W. Shankling and George M. Hess, of Baltimore County, further time to complete their collections. Passed Feb. 26, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John W. Shankling and George M. Hess, collectors of taxes in Baltimore county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to collect all taxes or balances of taxes due them, as collectors of tax in the several districts for which they were appointed as collectors of tax in said county, in the same manner and with the same power and privileges which they might have done within the time limited by law; provided, that Time allowed