

at discretion, change a common seal, may ordain by-laws, rules and regulations, such as said corporate body may deem proper, not inconsistent with this act, or the law and constitution of this State, or of the United States; and, in like manner, may establish a constitution for said corporate body.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said corporate body may have such officers or managers and otherwise, (who shall exercise the powers conferred on this corporation) as may be instituted and designated by the by-laws or constitution aforesaid, and to be elected at such times and for such period, and in such manner, and with such qualifications, duties and powers as the said by-laws or constitution of the said society may prescribe.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said corporation shall be deemed to have the power at any time hereafter to procure and collect a general and miscellaneous library, to be controlled and availed of according to the rules and provisions in the constitution or by-laws of the corporation.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act shall be so construed as to authorise the said corporation to issue any note, token, scrip, device or other evidence of debt, to be used as a currency.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the legislature reserves to itself the right to alter or annul this act of incorporation at pleasure.

CHAPTER 30.

An act for the relief of Johannes Diemer, of Baltimore County. Passed Jan. 16, 1846.

WHEREAS, it is represented to the General Assembly, on behalf of Johannes Diemer, that he has been a resident of the State of Maryland for the last seven years, and has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States in the office of the Circuit Court of the United States for the fourth Circuit, in and for the Maryland District, on the ninth day of October, in the year eighteen hundred and forty-five, and has become the holder of real property in this State, but cannot exercise a legal control or disposition of the same, because he is not a naturalized citizen of the United States, therefore
