

tively, for which services the said clerks and registers shall be entitled to charge, demand and receive the sum of twenty-five cents for each action or suit, to be taxed in the bill of costs against the plaintiff or plaintiffs in said action or suit. CHAP. 255. Receive 25 cents.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said clerks and registers respectively, shall enter and transcribe as aforesaid, the docket entries of all and every execution or executions which shall be entered satisfied, or otherwise finally settled, and also the docket entries of all and every fieri facias or fieri facias's, or other final process, under which any personal property shall have been seized or taken, together with a copy of the schedule or schedules accompanying such fieri facias, and also the sheriffs return on such execution or fieri facias, regularly paged and alphabeted as aforesaid, for which services the said clerks and registers shall be entitled to charge, demand and receive, the same compensation for each execution and fieri facias as aforesaid required to be transcribed, and the entries in the same, as is allowed by the first section of this act, to be taxed by said clerks and registers in the additional cost of said execution or fieri facias, and endorsed thereon. Enter and transcribe the docket entries, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any clerk or register as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to comply with the provisions of this act, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of two hundred dollars, to be recovered by indictment in any of the county courts of this State, or Howard District, for the use of the State. Neglect or refuse, forfeit $200.

CHAPTER 255.

An act to incorporate the Washington Coal Company. Passed Feb. 2, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Roger C. Weightman, William A. Bradley and John H. Saunders, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby made a corporation, by the name of the Washington Coal Company, for the purpose of working mines of coal and iron, and for vending the products of the same; and as such, shall have a common seal; and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in any court of law and equity, and to make by-laws and all such other rules and regulations as Legal capacity.