

CHAP. 266. whenever application is made for the admission of any child or children, in the school in his, her or their appropriate district, and the child or children are refused, without the payment of the sum assessed, upon the admission of children generally, then the parent, or guardian or friend of such child or children, and the trustees of said primary school, shall have power and authority respectively, to appoint each an arbitrator, and said arbitrators, in case of disagreement, a third shall determine whether or not the parent or guardian of the said child or children, is able to pay the sum assessed, to be paid by him, her or them; and if the arbitrators shall determine, that the said party or parties are not able so to pay, then the trustees shall admit the said child or children, to the entire benefits of said primary school; and upon their refusal so to do, and representation being made to the county commissioners of the school district so refusing to comply with the award of said arbitrators, shall be debarred all benefit in the State's donation, until the grievance is remedied.

Repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 266.

Passed Feb. 24, 1846. A supplement to the act, entitled, an act to prevent the destruction of Wild Fowl in the head waters of the Chesapeake Bay, in the several counties therein mentioned, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter ten, and also a supplement to the act entitled, an act to preserve the Ducks in Sassafras, Elk, and Bohemia Rivers, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-three, chapter three hundred and two.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to the General Assembly, by the petition of a number of the citizens of this State, that it is almost impossible to kill any ducks in the Elk river with ordinary ducking guns; and whereas, the said petitioners have prayed the passage of a law authorising all persons, who will obtain a license from the clerk of Cecil county court, to kill ducks in the Elk river, by such means and with such guns as are prohibited by the above recited acts—therefore,
