

CHAP. 282. said summons, if the party shall be returned summoned, or the summons shall have been left for ten days at his or her place of abode, it shall be the duty of the said judge or court to examine the case, and if he or it shall be satisfied that such person licensed to trade or sell, is generally reputed to deal with negroes contrary to law, or to receive stolen goods, or if said court or judge shall have good reason to believe, that such person deals or receives goods in the manner aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said court, or judge to take away and annul said license; provided, that if the said judge shall so take away and annul said license, the said persons so licensed to trade, may appeal to the next county court in said county, which shall pass upon the matter in the manner aforesaid, but such appeal shall not operate to allow the said person to trade or sell during the pendency of such appeal.

Proviso,

Not competent to trade.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any trader who may be convicted, and his license suspended under this act after such appeal, shall not be competent to trade or sell in Calvert county, under the license of any other person, obtained for his use, nor shall he have a license granted to him in his name at any time thereafter.

CHAPTER 282.

Passed Mar 9, 1846.

An act to authorize and require the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore of Maryland, at the June Term, eighteen hundred and forty-six, of the said Court, to take up, hear, try and determine a case in said Court, now depending between Edward R. Wheeler, Robert S. Reeder and others, appellants, and Joseph Stone and William B. Stone, appellees.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to the General Assembly, that the interest of the parties to the case, in the title to this act mentioned, would be greatly promoted by the trial of the same at the June term, eighteen hundred and forty-six, of the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore of Maryland—therefore,

Clerk to enter case.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the clerk of the Court of Appeals for the Western Shore of Maryland be, and he is hereby authorised and require to place and enter the case, in the title to this act mentioned, on the trial docket of the June term, eighteen hundred and forty-six, of the said court, and that the said court be and they are hereby authorised and required to proceed in the said case, at the said June term,
