CHAPTER 35.

An act to divide the Second and Third Election Districts in Worcester County into Three Election Districts. Passed Jan.
22, 1846

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, and the confirmation of the same by the next General Assembly, that James F. Mills, Joseph Richardson and John F. Purnell be commissioners appointed, whose duty it shall be to lay out and establish a new election district by taking a portion of each of the above mentioned districts; and the said district when established shall be known by the appellation of the New Ark District, or district numbered nine. Commissioners.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall commence at the mouth of the creek known as Mill Creek, following the said creek to the head waters thereof, and from thence the most proper route to the head waters of the Nine Pin branch, and down said branch to the mouth thereof; and for the southern line thereof, commencing at the mouth of the creek leading up to John Turpin's mill, thence with the most proper route to the forks of the road at Westleyville, thence with the county road to the lands of Samuel Johnson, thence north of the lands of Samuel Johnson (of Samuel) and John Porter, the most proper route to the Pokomoke River. Place of commencement.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That after the confirming of this act by the next General Assembly of Maryland, that at the election next held in said county, an election shall be held in the said district in the town of New Ark and in such house as the commissioners of said county shall designate, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, the aforesaid commissioners Election.
