

CHAP. 288. timore county court, within thirty days previous to the return day of the next term of said court.

Lawful to issue writ of scire facias.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That in all cases where one claim shall be filed by the person preferring the same, either for work done or materials furnished, or both in pursuance of the twelfth section of the original act to which this is a supplement, it shall and may be lawful to issue one writ of scire facias to recover the same, which writ of scire facias shall specify the amount claimed on each house, and that it shall and may be lawful for any party in interest upon the return of the said writ of scire facias to apply for and have as many cases docketed as there are houses proceeded against, and that separate judgments shall and may be entered against each of the said houses, and the same proceedings shall be had as would have taken place if separate liens had been filed.

Claiming to have interest.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That any person having or claiming to have any interest in any building proceeded against, may upon petition, be authorised to appear and be made a party defendant, and that the person so doing, shall become responsible for costs.

Take effect.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this act of Assembly shall take effect immediately from and after its passage.

CHAPTER 288.

Passed Mar. 9, 1846.

A further supplement to the act, entitled an act to appoint Commissioners for the regulation and improvement of Chestertown, in Kent County, and for other purposes, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, chapter one hundred and one.

* Commissioners may sanction and allow.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly Maryland, That the commissioners of Chestertown may, from time to time, sanction and allow, if in their judgment, the public convenience will not be affected thereby, all encroachments upon the public streets and alleys of the said town, by buildings, porches, steps and fencing, which have already been made on the same, or which may hereafter be erected and built by the consent of said commissioners.

Authorised to acquit.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the judges of Kent county court, shall be authorised to acquit all persons,