

CHAP. 292. thereafter as may be convenient, after the adoption of this law, appoint a treasurer, whose duty it shall be to take charge of all moneys levied on said county by this act, for the support of primary schools, and the same pay over to the order of any two of the said commissioners; and the said treasurer shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with such security or securities as may be approved by the said commissioners, in the penal sum of eight thousand dollars, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and the said treasurer shall receive three per centage on all moneys received and disbursed by him.

Give bond.

Duty of collector. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the collector for said county, to collect the amount of the assessment for the use of primary schools, and to pay the same over to the treasurer; and the said collector shall receive, for making such collections, the same per centage as may be allowed by law for the collection of other county charges, and the official bond of said collector shall be responsible for all moneys collected under the provisions of this law.

Judges to ask voter whether for or against this act. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That at the next election of delegates to the General Assembly, for Queen Anne's county, every voter, when he offers to vote, shall be required by the judges of election to state, whether he is for or against the provisions of this act, and the judges shall record the number of votes for and against this act, and the presiding judges, at the time of making return of delegates to the General Assembly, shall ascertain and report to the levy court of said county, the number of votes for and against the provisions of this act, and if a majority shall be in favor of this law, then and in that case this said act shall be valid, otherwise of no effect whatever.

Go into operation. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That if this act shall go into operation, the sum apportioned to the primary school district comprehending the town of Centreville, shall be paid to the trustees of the Centreville Academy, until a primary school shall be established in said district; the trustees receiving into said academy, free of charge, such poor white children in the district as may be sent to said academy.