

CHAP. 321. all monies received by them under the provisions of the said act, and the manner of its disbursement; and the first annual statement hereafter to be made in pursuance of this act, shall contain a full account of all monies heretofore received and disbursed by them.

Bond of the commissioners

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the bond of the said commissioners executed to the State of Maryland, according to the requirements of the said original act, shall not be deemed or considered to apply to any sum or sums of money other than those received by them, and not applied according to the provisions of the said law, and the several supplements thereto, during the time they may be acting as commissioners, and that the annual statement heretofore required of them to be made on oath to the clerk of Worcester county court, shall be evidence of the amount for which they may be so liable.

Monies
received-how applied.

SEC. 3. AND WHEREAS, doubts have arisen as to what part of the Pocomoke river were contemplated by the original act; be it enacted, that all monies received by the said commissioners under the provisions of the act aforesaid, shall be applied after the payment of the necessary expenses of the commission, as the said commissioners shall deem most advisable, in clearing out, removing all obstructions in the main stream of the said river, between the town of Snow Hill and the west line of the State of Delaware, and rendering the same navigable for boats and the rafting of timber, so far as the same may be practicable, within the amount provided by the said original act; and the said commissioners shall not be individually liable to any suit or suits for any act or acts by them done, or done by their direction in the proper discharge of their official duties.

Commissioners elected to give bond.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all new commissioners elected under the provisions of an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty, chapter two hundred and fifteen, shall and they are hereby required before entering upon the discharge of their duties as such, to give bond to the State of Maryland, in such penalty as the board of commissioners, with like conditions to those required of the commissioners appointed by the original act.