Court to allow supervisor to contract for timber, &c.

Proviso.

To receive pay for 10 days

Proviso.

LIABLE TO PRESENTMENT.

Repealed.

Discretionary power reserved.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the said levy court is hereby empowered to authorise the supervisor of any public road in Calvert county, to contract for such wood, timber or other materials as may be necessary to keep in good repair any such road, causeway or bridge; provided however, that nothing in this act shall extend to, or affect any cases where persons are compelled by law or contract to keep any bridge in repair.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That no supervisor shall be privileged to receive pay for a greater number than ten days in each year, and the said supervisors shall receive for each day that he may have worked upon said roads; provided, said number of days does not exceed ten, the sum of not less than one or more than two dollars at the discretion of said court.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That any supervisor who shall refuse or neglect to discharge the duties prescribed in this act, shall be liable to presentment before the grand jury of said county, and subject to a fine not exceeding fifty nor less than twenty-five dollars, in the discretion of the judges of the county court, which fine or fines shall be collected in the same manner that other fines are now collected, and shall be paid into the Treasury of the State, after deducting the expenses accruing on such presentments.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all acts inconsistent with this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That the discretionary power is hereby reserved in the levy court of Calvert county, if in their judgment, it shall be most advantageous for the county, to sell out the public roads in hundreds as they are now laid off to the lowest bidder.

CHAPTER 326.

Passed March 9, 1826.

An act for the relief of Amos Young, of Washington County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of Amos Young, of Washington county, that on the tenth day of November, eighteen hundred and forty-five, he obtained out of the land office of the State, a warrant of resurvey, upon part of a tract of land of which he is seized in fee, called Chew's farm, lying in
