CHAPTER 330.

Passed Mar. 10, 1846.

A further supplement to an act to give to the Chancellor and the county courts as Courts of Equity, jurisdiction in cases of Divorce, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter two hundred and thirty-two.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter two hundred and sixty-two, requires that where a party sues for a divorce in the county court as a court of equity, he or she shall file his or her petition or bill in the court of the county where the party against whom the divorce is sought resides; and whereas, instances may occur in which it would be conducive to the interest and convenience of the party petitioning, to have the right to petition in the county in which he or she may reside—therefore,

May file application with the court.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, in all cases of application to the county courts of this State for divorce, it shall and may be lawful for the party applying, to file his or her petition or bill, either in the court of the county where he or she may reside, or in the court of the county where the party against whom the divorce is sought may reside, at the option of the applicant or petitioner.

Repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.
