

CHAPTER 339.

CHAP. 339.

An act supplemental to an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter two hundred and sixty-nine, entitled, an act providing for the appointment of Lime Inspectors for the City of Baltimore, and prescribing their duties. Passed Mar. 10, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the mayor of the city of Baltimore annually appoint three persons well skilled in the quality and quantity of lime, to constitute a board of appeal, whose duty it shall be to decide upon all cases of appeal which may be made to them, from the decision of the lime inspectors and measurers, either by the lime burners, sellers or buyers, and their decision shall be final; and should the decision of the board of appeal be in opposition to the certificate of the inspector and measurer, the inspector and measurer shall pay all the expenses that may accrue in consequence of the appeal, and should the decision of the lime inspector or measurer be confirmed, the expense shall be paid by the person making the appeal. Mayor to appoint three inspectors.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That each person constituting the board of appeal, as before provided for, shall receive for his services for each case of appeal he may set on, one dollar, and should any case occupy more time than one day, each member attending may demand one dollar for each days attendance; the persons that shall be appointed to constitute the board of appeal, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall in the presence of the mayor of the city, be required to make oath or affirmation, as the case may be, that they will faithfully perform the duties of their office to the best of their skill and ability. Each person to receive one dollar.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That in the event of any of the lime burners, buyers or sellers being dissatisfied with the decision of the lime inspector measurer, either in quality or quantity of the lime which shall have been inspected and measured, the party so aggrieved may call upon the board of appeal, whose duty it shall be to examine the case as soon as practicable, and that a majority of that board shall constitute a quorum to transact business. Apply to the board of appeal.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in case there should be three appeals in succession, from the inspection and Governor may dismiss.
