

CHAP. 348. SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the school commissioners shall, by the judges of the orphans court be required to give bond with sufficient security in the name of the State for the faithful discharge of their duties and for the disbursement of the school funds placed in their hands for distribution among the several schools of their respective districts, and it shall also be the duty of the said school commissioners once in each and every year, to report and exhibit to the orphans court, a correct statement of their proceedings under the provisions of this act, which said statement the orphans court may order to be published at their discretion.

Annual election of commissioners. SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the election for school commissioners shall be hereafter held annually as by the act directed on the first Monday in June, in each and every year.

Judges to order publication in Cecil. SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the judges of the orphans court are hereby directed to order the publication of this act in the newspapers published in Cecil county, three weeks before the first Monday in June next, when the election is to be held under the provisions of this act for school commissioners.

On failure of any district to elect, &c. SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That if any of the districts in said county, shall fail to elect school commissioners in accordance with the provisions of this act, that the orphans court of said county, shall apply the poor school fund for said district, as directed and required by the laws now in force.

Repealed. SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all laws or parts of laws inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 348.

Passed Mar. 10, 1846. A further additional supplement to the act to establish Magistrates Courts in the several Counties of this State, and to prescribe their jurisdiction.

Authorised to issue attachments. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the several magistrates' courts of this State, shall have power upon the return of one non est to a capias ad respondendum issued against a non-resident or non-residents of this State, and upon the like return of two non ests against a resident or residents of this