

CHAPTER 357.

CHAP. 358.

A further supplement to an act, entitled an act, for amending and reducing into system the laws and regulations concerning last Wills and Testaments, the duties of Executors and Administrators and Guardians, and the right of Orphans and representatives of deceased persons, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-eight, chapter one hundred and one.

Passed Mar. 10, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of April next, the coarse provender upon the farm or lands of any person dying in this State, shall not be sold by the execut or oradministrator of such person so dying, but shall be left upon the farm or plantation for the use thereof; provided, that the person so dying, shall leave issue or relations who may inherit the said lands from them, or a devisee to whom he may have devised the same.

Not to be removed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the term, coarse provender, as used in the preceding section, shall include the corn top, corn shucks, wheat, oat and rye straw, that may be on the farm at the time of sale made by an executor or administrator.

Term, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the provisions given by law to the widows of deceased persons, shall not be construed to include provisions put up or provided for farms, other than the home or mansion house farm of the person so dying.

Provisions, &c

CHAPTER 358.

An act to allow Washington County Court to grant an appeal in a certain case.

Passed March 10, 1846.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the court of Washington county, be and the same is hereby authorised and required to grant an appeal in the case heretofore decided by said court, wherein the State of Maryland, use of Lewis Fiery was plaintiff, and a certain Samuel Miller was defendant; and that the points of law decided and the instructions given by the said court, as set forth and contained in an appeal already granted by the said court, wherein the said State of Ma-

Court to grant appeal,