CHAPTER 363.

A supplement to an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter two hundred and ninety-three, a further supplement to the act entitled, an act relating to the Insolvent Debtors in the city of Baltimore.

Passed Mar. 10, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever it doth appear, or shall appear, from the final accounts of the trustee or trustees of any insolvent debtor, stated under the authority of Baltimore county court, and approved by said court, that all claims of the creditors of said insolvent which have been filed and proved and allowed by the court, have been paid in full, then, in that event, all property which shall after the final ratification of said accounts be acquired by, or accrue to said insolvent by gift, descent, or in his own right by bequest, devise, or in any course of distribution, shall not rest in the trustee or trustees of said insolvent, as provided by the second section of the act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, chapter two hundred and ninety-three; provided however, that no account shall be considered final within the contemplation of this act, so as to vest in the insolvent any property acquired by, or accruing to said insolvent by gift, descent, or in his own right by bequest, devise, or in any course of distribution, unless the trustee or trustees of said insolvent shall have given notice to the creditors of the insolvent by a publication in at least two newspapers printed in the city of Baltimore, of his or their intention to have stated by the auditor, a final account, in which it shall appear that the full amount of all claims of every description against the insolvent would be fully paid and satisfied out of funds, then in his or Insolvent debtors.

Proviso.
