

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Havre-de-grace bank to discount any bill of exchange or promissory note which shall be offered for discount in said bank by any person or persons; although the same shall not on the face thereof be made negotiable at the Havre-de-grace bank, nor be made payable at the house of any person in the town of Havre-de-grace, and the same shall be recoverable by said bank in any court of law or equity, and be good and valid to all intents and purposes; and at any time when a general meeting of the stockholders shall be called, the notice for such meeting shall be published in the newspapers in Harford and Cecil counties and in some one of the public prints in the city of Baltimore, not less than two months prior to the day of such meeting.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That every thing in the act to which this is a supplement, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 374.

A supplement to an act, entitled an act to impose a tax upon and to license Theatrical and other public exhibitions, and for other purposes, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-one, chapter one hundred and ninety-four. Passed March 10, 1846.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, any person or company of stage players, ventriloquists, sleight of hand performers, rope dancers, tumblers and wire dancers, and all others named or intended by the original act to which this is a supplement, exhibiting for a reward, shall previously to exhibiting or performing in any county in this State, Baltimore City excepted, and which is provided for in the second section of the said original act, pay to the clerk of the county thereof thirty dollars for a license for one year or one dollar for a license for each and every such exhibition or performance, at his or their option; provided, and it is hereby so intended, that all circus riders or companies of equestrian performers or exhibitors of menageries, shall pay respectively the licenses now provided by said original act.