

CHAP. 394. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That before he proceeds to collect under and by virtue of this act, he shall make out and deliver to the person or persons from whom the same may be demanded, an account of fees, sums of money or balances due from such person or persons, and if required by the party, annex thereto an affidavit, that the same is due and unpaid.

Make affidavit if required.

CHAPTER 393.

Passed Mar. 10, 1846.

Preamble.

An act to extend the trial by Jury to certain cases.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of a number of citizens of Cecil county, that the passage of a law is greatly desired to extend to all persons citizens of said county, the suppression of whose license has been recommended by the grand jury the right to have all such recommendations traversed and tried by a jury, as all other presentments now are—therefore,

Court not to suppress license.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, no license or licenses shall be suppressed by Cecil county court, except by presentment by the grand jury, and the finding by a petit jury, as in other cases of misdemeanors: and whenever any license as aforesaid, is declared by the verdict of a petit jury, upon presentment, to be a nuisance which ought to be abated, Cecil county court is hereby authorised and directed to abate said nuisance and suppress said license upon the finding of said jury and not otherwise.

Repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act, be and they are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 394.

Passed Mar. 9, 1846.

Authorised to collect until May.

An act for the relief of Francis Stevens, late Sheriff of Calvert County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Francis Stevens, late sheriff of Calvert