

CHAP. 399.

Inspectors restricted in their duties.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the inspector of shingles and the inspectors of lumber, and their several deputies, appointed from time to time for the said village of Port Deposit, shall be confined and restricted in their duties as inspectors, as aforesaid, within the limits of the said village, and it shall not be lawful for any other inspector now appointed, or to be hereafter appointed, to inspect or count lumber or shingles within the limits of said village.

Twenty dollars forfeit.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this act, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the State, to be recovered by action in the name of the State, before any justice of the peace in Cecil county.

CHAPTER 399.

Passed Mar.
10, 1846.

Incorporated.

An act to incorporate the Chesapeake Railway Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Sands, Alfred Everson, George Taylor, John Phillips, William H. T. Wilson and Thomas T. Terry, and such other persons as may join with them as subscribers, and their assigns shall be, and they are hereby created a body politic, by the name and style of the Chesapeake Railway Company, with power to receive subscriptions to the stock of the said company, to build and repair vessels of all kinds and descriptions, erect screw and other docks, to purchase and use all necessary machinery, tools, supplies and materials used in and about the building and repairation of vessels, to purchase and hold the land and erect the buildings necessary and convenient to the objects and purposes of the said company, at or near to the city of Annapolis, to sue and be sued, and to do such things as are incident by the general laws of the State to corporations.

Capital $2,000

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the capital stock of the said company shall not be less than two thousand dollars, nor more than twenty thousand dollars, and be divided into shares of ten dollars each, and to be subscribed for at the city of Annapolis after ten days public notice, by the persons hereinbefore named.