

CHAP. 43. always, that the said rules, by-laws and orders, be in no way contrary to the laws of this State.

Trustees to dispose of the surplus.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said trustees shall dispose of all products arising from the cultivation of said land, over and above what may be necessary for the maintenance of the poor of the said poor house, and the amount of money arising from such sale or sales, after paying all the expenses of the said poor house and farm, shall, annually, on the first Tuesday of April in each and every year, be returned on oath and paid over to the commissioners of Somerset county, to be applied for the benefit of said county; and in case the products of said farm shall be insufficient for the maintenance of the poor in said poor house, the said commissioners of the said county shall annually levy, as now provided by law, for the use of the said trustees such sum as in addition to said products shall be necessary.

Repealed.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That all laws heretofore passed, authorising and empowering the trustees of the poor in Somerset county to keep out pensioners, and grant and allow said pensioners annual pensions, be, and the same are hereby repealed, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, however, it shall and may be lawful for said trustees to grant an allowance within their discretion to persons confined to his or her bed with disease, and unable to be removed to said poor house, and said allowance may be continued as long as said confinement and inability last, and no longer.

Proviso.

Repealed.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 43.

Passed Jan. 28, 1846. An act to incorporate the Trustees of the Burnt Mill School in Washington County.

Incorporated.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Samuel Cost, Emanuel Morrison, and Jacob Staups, trustees for a school established in election district Number one, of Washington county, known as the Burnt Mill School, and their successors, to be appointed or elected as hereinafter directed, shall from and after the passage of this act, be and they are hereby