

manently established and marked, and when these land marks are either lost or destroyed, that they be refixed and renewed; and whereas, the first boundary stone of Mason's and Dixon's line, which said line divides the States of Maryland and Pennsylvania, has been either removed, lost or destroyed, the location of which stone should be at the north eastern corner of the State of Maryland, and at the point where the States of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Delaware join each other; and whereas, it is expedient that the said point should be again established and marked, by a stone or a monument—therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Governor of this State be, and is hereby requested to take such measures as are in his judgment most proper, for the re-establishment of the north eastern corner of this State, where it joins the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware, at the point where Mason's and Dixon's line commences, and for re-marking the said point with a stone or other proper monument.

Resolved, That the Governor of this State be requested to open a correspondence with the Executives of the State of Pennsylvania and Delaware, relative to the re-fixing of a stone or monument at the north eastern corner of this State, at the point where Mason's and Dixon's line commences, and where the States of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Delaware join each other.

Resolved, That if the concurrence of Pennsylvania and Delaware can be obtained, to the re-marking the commencement and beginning of Mason's and Dixon's line, and the re-setting of a boundary stone or monument at the point where the State of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Delaware join each other, that then the Governor of this State be, and is hereby authorised and empowered to appoint, on the part of this State, a commissioner or agent who, together with those appointed by the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware, shall ascertain the original site of the boundary stone which has been removed, lost or destroyed, and shall direct the setting of a new stone or the erection of such monument as may, by the commissioners and agents of the States of Pennsylvania and Delaware, be agreed upon, for marking the beginning point of Mason's and Dixon's line, the division line between Maryland and Pennsylvania, and the point where the States of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Delaware join each other, the same being the north eastern corner of the State of Maryland.
